PROFILE

Tiffany is a skilled speaker, trainer, facilitator, and coach with a deep passion for helping individuals overcome challenges, create the life they desire, and achieve their personal and professional goals.

Her approach blends deep listening with actionable strategies to help others realize their full potential, build self-confidence, and find purpose. Tiffany has a proven track record of assisting individuals in breaking free from negative thought patterns that hold them back. Instead, she guides them toward fostering a results-driven mindset that leads to positive, impactful outcomes. Professionally, Tiffany is a trusted advisor to senior leaders, peers, and subordinates alike.

COACHING APPROACH/PHILOSOPHY

With over 20 years of professional experience, including 15 years as an Intelligence Officer, Tiffany has held various leadership roles in support of National Security.

Prior to her work with the Department of Defense, she served in the District of Columbia Public School System's Office of Compliance and the District of Columbia's Office of the Inspector General.

Tiffany holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Cornell University and a Master's in Executive Leadership from Georgetown University. She is also a Senior Certified Professional (SCP) with the Society for Human Resources Management (SHRM) and is actively pursuing her Associate Certified Coach (ACC) accreditation through the International Coaching Federation.
